To whom it may concern:

R&D Precision is one of the premier suppliers for Parker Hannifin Corporation. R&D Precision consistently provides excellent delivery and quality at a competitive price allowing me to remain competitive and provide good customer service to my end customers. They hold a high expertise in the fabrication of complex semiconductor and aerospace products. If you want a subcontractor that provides excellent customer service and can react at a moment's notice, you want to call R&D Precision.

Sincerely,
